BIRCH v. GOMEZ
Case No. FCS058995

Motion by Defendant for Terminating Sanctions for Plaintiff's Failure to Comply with Court Order Compelling Discovery

TENTATIVE RULING

With no indication that Plaintiff complied with the court's August 4, 2023 discovery order served by mail on her on January 3, 2024, the court finds sufficient cause to grant this unopposed motion for terminating sanctions. Plaintiff's complaint will be stricken, and this case dismissed. Defendant is to prepare and provide to Plaintiff for her opportunity to approve as to form both an order on this motion and a judgment for dismissal, before providing those to the court to sign and enter, with Defendant to thereafter serve notice of entry of the signed documents on Plaintiff.

The court further imposes additional monetary sanctions against Plaintiff ANISSA BIRCH, in the amount of $393.16. These additional monetary sanctions shall be due and payable within 15 days of service of the court's signed order.
